

From mx.d.dk: Huge media attention for Ja Ja Ja Vienna!

The first ever Ja Ja Ja event in Austria has caught the attention of some of the country's most influential media. Here's a look at the buzz that the event has created:

Newspapers and magazines, such as Krone, Falter, Wiener Bezirkszeitung, Volume and Kurier caught on early:

Kurier

Wiener Bezirkszeitung

From mx.d.dk: Huge media attention for Ja Ja Ja Vienna!

Volume subscribers received Ja Ja Ja material along with their November issue

Many Austrian online magazines and blogs including Mokant.at, Vienna.at (who listed Ja Ja Ja as one of the concert highlights of January), skug.at, typischich.at, FM5 and many more also flew the Ja Ja Ja-standard (click the links for articles).

From mx.d.dk: Huge media attention for Ja Ja Ja Vienna!

Not only written media, but also radio- & TV stations helped spread the word. Major national radio FM4 had VÖK (IS) as their guest on today's morning show to promote the event and Ö1 did a feature on the event last week. National TV station ORF did this segment, highlighting the night (watch from 2:17). Other stations include Radio Orange, Radiofabrik, W24 and also ORF Teletext (ORF's TV news service):

Infoscreen - public information boards stationed around the city

ORF Teletext

ORF TV - Austrian national TV encouraged people to go to Ja Ja Ja in Vienna.

Other notable press includes:

From mxd.dk: Huge media attention for Ja Ja Ja Vienna!

Maxima, Skip, Ticket Magazin, VOR, Wienerin, Unimagazin, Kulturwoche.at, Rockvideos.at, Wr. Zeitung and Film, Sound & Media

Stay tuned for more press releases on Ja Ja Ja in Vienna!